- Cast Iron cookware are safer than many modern pieces cookware
- Cast iron cookware require less oil They are value for money
- Cast iron cookware keep food from burning

SEASONING PROCESS

BENEFITS OF CAST IRON

- Chemical free
- Can be used on stove and oven
- It is non stick
- Easy to clean
- Safer than other modern pieces
- Can be cooked on high heat
- Adds Iron to th Food
- Requires less oil
- Long life span
- Easy to maintain
- Cooks food evenly
- Tough and durable

1

Soak, scrub, rinse

2

Dry (completely!)

3

Oil and buff

Give your cast iron a quick soak in mildly soapy, hot water, then use an abrasive scrubby pad or brush to remove any and all unwanted particles until the surface is smooth and free of unevenness.

Wipe your cast iron down with a paper towel or a dish linen

Drop 1 teaspoon of oil into the pan and use a paper towel to rub it in evenly across the entire pan. Flip the pan over, add 1 more teaspoon oil if needed, and repeat the rubbing process until the entire pan (handle included) is coated evenly with the thinnest layer of oil. Keep rubbing and buffing the oil into pan until it no longer looks greasy.
